XILIN GINGER CRYSTAL (西林姜晶)

Country of origin: China
Category: Special Signs of Geographical Indication Products
Type of product: Powdered ginger

Geographical Area: Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region

Specificity of the Product: Xilin Jiang Jing is the main raw material of Xilin fire ginger and ginger crystal. West forest cultivation of Xilin fire ginger has thousands of years of history. Xilin people are very familiar with Xilin fire ginger's medicinal value and use. Xilin soldiers brought home this type of fire resistant ginger, which is used to treat agitated colds. Because the ginger is not easy to save and is inconvenient to transport, the Xilin fire ginger slices are dried, broken into a powder, and placed in a bag so the ginger is easy to carry and use. This is the initial embryonic form of ginger crystal. Over the years, xilin ginger crystal gradually became accepted and loved by consumers, in the market it occupies an important position. Its production and sales have experienced substantial growth in recent years and the product is also exported to Russia. Now, at the mention of Xilin specialties, people always think of Xilin ginger crystal.
