

Annex: 1

Controls of geographical indications and traditional specialities: the fourth seminar for Member States on 10/11/2016

The aim of the seminar:

- To further improve the knowledge of the control requirements,
- By bringing together participants from different Member States, to allow the exchange of experience and disseminate best practices for control activities and procedures

Draft agenda

Morning session from 9:30 to 13:00 – L 130 11 - ROOM B

Session I - ACTIONS: Managing the growing challenge of food fraud

The global strategy: worldwide protection of geographical indications (FR – Mme Le Page)

E-commerce: from web-site to real producer (IT – Mr Vaccari)

Food fairs: fake products (IT – Mr Vittori)

Market controls:

- National experience in monitoring wine (FR – Mr Guyonnet-Dupérat)
- National experience in monitoring spirit drinks (DE – Mr Albrecht)

Administrative Assistance and Cooperation system: results after the first year (COM – Mr Marin)

Q & A

SESSION II – TOOLS: Detecting food fraud

FOODINTEGRITY project: collaboration between research centres – Focus on product characteristics and detection technologies (UK – Mr Brereton)

Food authenticity: analytical methodology and databases (FR – Mr Jamin)

Lunch break (13:00 -14:30)

Afternoon session from 14:30 to 18:00 – L 130 11 - ROOM B

Food authenticity and quality: ensuring consumers' confidence - Focus on wine
(JRC – Mr Ulberth)

Q & A

Session III – CONTROL: Commission audits and related activities

Weaknesses and good practices identified in Commission audits (food sector)
(COM – Mrs Fitzgerald)

Auditing geographical indications of wine: lessons learnt from the first audit (PT
– Mr Falcão)

Increasing trust: accreditation of control bodies (ENAC – Mrs Gredilla Zazo)

National experience: competent authority's supervision of control bodies (ES - Garcia Chiquero)

Control of geographical indications protected through the international agreements (COM - AGRI B.3)

Q & A

New BSTF activity / reporting requirement (COM – AGRI B.3)

Update on ISAMM project (COM – AGRI B.3)

Closing

Contact person:

Živilė KAZLAUSKAITĖ ☎: +32 2 29 68810, e-mail: zivile.kazlauskaite@ec.europa.eu