

ЫСЫК-АТА

Country of origin: Kyrgyzstan

Type of product: Mineral water

Product information: Issyk-Ata - natural mineral water with a high fluorine content and silica, with a salinity of about 0.3 g / l, produced in the resort of Issyk-Ata, in the Chui region of Kyrgyzstan. Alternate Spellings: Issyk-Ata , Issyk-Ata . Sometimes it called Arashan.

ith regard to the specific characteristics of the mineral water resort Issyk-Ata has different information. Mineral water from well number 2, is poured into the pump-room resort is nitric alkali (acidity 8,3-9,0 pH), chloride-sulphate sodium, with mineralization 0,27-0,33 g / L, the natural temperature of 49.7 -51,0 ° C, with a high content of silica (up to 45 mg / l) and fluoride (7.8mg/l).

OA Kaljuzhnaja in his article characterizes drinking mineral water Issyk-Ata, as carbon chloride-sodium bicarbonate slightly alkaline (pH 7.2-8.5 acidity).

Source:

- State Service of Intellectual Property and Innovation under the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic (Kyrgyzpatent) - <http://www.patent.kg/index.php/ky/appelation-of-origin/106-naimenovanie-mest-proiskhozhdeniya-tovara/841-obshchaya-informatsiya.html>
- <http://www.gastroscan.ru/handbook/332/6283>