

Saikhani Airag (Kumis)

Saikhani airag (kumis) was registered in the name of Administration of the Bulgan Province, registration date: 2007.01.03, registration number: 6210, application number: 6833

The people of Bulgan province (namely Saikhan Soum (territory) maintain the traditional technology for producing this national drink (horse's milk). It is very good tasting Kumis. This process has been fully recognized by all people in the Saikhan territory, which became a famous national product in Mongolia. It is a national brand fully recognized by all people. The main differences between other provinces and Bulgan is that the Bulgan's territory's weather and its grasses are not like any other provinces, which give a totally different taste. This special fermented dairy product is nowadays still famous and almost all Mongolian people prefer the Saikhani airag. It is more expensive than other similar products on the Mongolian market.

Source: Mongolia GI Development Association, IIPD