

TAKAKO BLACK BARLEY RAMEN (隆子黑青稞糌粑)

Country of origin: China

Category: Special Signs of Geographical Indication Products

Type of product: Barley

Geographical Area: Longzizhen Longzi County, Tibet Autonomous Region, Rongxiang, Jade Township, Lemei Township, Doudou Township and Sanlin Township

Specificity of the Product: Takako County black barley is cultivated and roasted in Lhünzê County, which has an altitude of 3800 meters above sea level, and in Mi Zhi, which has an altitude of 4200 meters. Black barley is used as a raw material for the production of flour and ramen. It has a grey color, uniform silty texture, moderate thickness, unique barley flavor, and sweet taste. With the continuous improvement of people's living standards and the increased trend toward healthy diets, Takako Black Barely Ramen has become fashionable. There are many consumers both in Tibet and mainland China of all ages.

Source:

General Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine (AQSIQ) - China Protected Geographical Indications Products (<http://www.cgi.gov.cn/Home/>). Product information translated and adapted through <https://translate.google.ch/>.