

TENGCHONG SAFFLOWER SEA OIL (腾冲红花油茶油)

Country of origin: China

Type of product: Sea oil

Geographical Area: Baoshan City in the Yunnan Province

Specificity of the Product: This tea oil is made with high-temperature melting of the ingredients and it is rich in organic matter. Tengchong safflower tea oil is made to be used in especially cold and chilly environments. The Central Plains Han culture and border culture of ethnic groups here are constantly engaged in a process of integration, collision, and evaluation. In this unique environment, the culture of the diligent Tengchong people led to them carefully cultivating and skillfully processing raw materials to produce this transparent, nutrient-rich tea oil. The tea oil is very healthy and medicinally valuable.
