

SUIYANG HONEYSUCKLE (绥阳金银花)

Country of origin: China

Type of product: Lonicera japonica (flower)

Geographical Area: Suiyang County, Guizhou Province Town, Zheng Town, Wangcao Town, Po Town, Fenghua Town, Mao Town, Soap Dam Town, Wide Town, Huang Yangzhen, Qingbaotang, Taibai Town, Hot Springs Town and Big Road Groove Township

Specificity of the product: Suiyang planted honeysuckle has a long history and is renowned at home and abroad. In the past, Suiyang honeysuckle was mostly wild. It was found that the honeysuckle prefers semi-evergreen shrubs and is adaptable to drought and cold. Suiyang's unique natural geographical environment is particularly suitable for the growth of honeysuckle. The Suiyang county party committee and government attach great importance to the enthusiasm of the local people for the plant. The Suiyang County Quality and Technology Bureau led to the honeysuckle industry development model. In 2013 it was the community's high degree of recognition and access to the "Suiyang honeysuckle" that resulted in geographical indication protection rights.
