

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

oriGIn

Organization for an International
Geographical Indications Network

Third Regional Consultation on Geographical Indications in Europe and Central Asia - Virtual

20 December , from 09.30 AM to 11.30 AM CET

Languages: English and Russian

zoom

Program

09h30-10h10 - Plenary

Moderation: Dmitry Zvyagintsev (FAO, REU) and Massimo Vittori (oriGIn)

- Welcome address: Nabil Gangi , Deputy Regional Representative (FAO), Riccardo Deserti, President (oriGIn) and Dr. Dávid Bencsik, Deputy State Secretary (Ministry of Agriculture, Hungary)
- Presentation of the study on the global GIs situation and main findings of 10 country/region reports selected by the project: Massimo Vittori (oriGIn)
- The reform of the EU GI system and cooperation activities with countries in Central Asia, Mr. Francis Fay, Head of Unit Geographical indications, DG Agri (EU Commission)
- Presentation on the recent developments of the WIPO Geneva Act: Alexandra Grazioli, Director, Lisbon Registry (WIPO)

10h10-10h50 - Groups sessions

- Group 1 (coordinated by Massimo Vittori, oriGIn): Studies concerning EU and western European countries (Croatia, France, Hungary, Poland and UK)
- Group 2 (coordinated by Darek Goszczyński): Studies concerning Easter European countries and Central Asia (Georgia, Moldova, Montenegro, Russia as well as Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan)

10h50-11h30 - Plenary

Moderation: Dmitry Zvyagintsev (FAO, REU) and Massimo Vittori (oriGIn)

- Main findings Group 1: Massimo Vittori, oriGIn with a member of the group
- Main findings Group 2: Darek Goszczyński with a member of the group
- International cooperation to support GI as a tool for sustainable food system, Florence Tartanac, senior officer, Food and Nutrition Division (FAO)
- Conclusions and next steps

